Dear Parents and Carers,

DECORATIVE HEADBANDS

Over the last few months, wearing decorative headbands has become popular amongst the girls. However, school has received some concerns from parents that some of the attachments are now overly large and could lead to a child being injured, particularly if they were poked in the eye.

Therefore, in response to the concerns raised, I am respectfully requesting that children just wear plain headbands with no attachments for school and save their more decorative headbands for wearing at home.

Thank you for your co-operation and understanding in this matter.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs H F Richardson

Headteacher
